Introduction

Magellan Midstream Partners, L.P. together with each of its subsidiaries (“Magellan” or “we”) promotes environmental stewardship while responsibly transporting critical fuel products for our nation. Our environmental actions include minimizing impacts on the diverse ecosystems within the footprint of our operations, managing our use of fresh water and other shared natural resources and minimizing our waste generation and air emissions to help promote a sustainable future.

Our Commitment

Environmental stewardship is fundamental to our business. We strive to minimize our environmental impact through safe operations, capital investments, asset construction and maintenance standards, and compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. We are committed to fostering a culture of safety and environmental responsibility and seeking to continuously improve our processes to ensure compliance with laws and regulations as reinforced through our Code of Business Conduct.

Expectations

Magellan expects all employees to act with purpose and alignment with our commitment to operating in an environmentally responsible manner. Contractors, vendors and suppliers working on behalf of Magellan are also expected to work in alignment with this policy to identify and mitigate environmental risks and impacts associated with work being performed. We regularly collect, manage and analyze performance data for our key environmental metrics, including air emissions, water and energy consumption and solid and hazardous waste generation to understand, assess and act on viable options for reducing our environmental footprint.

Reporting Concerns

If wrongdoing or unethical behavior by Magellan is suspected, report it to us through a counterpart at Magellan. If the issue(s) remain unresolved after that contact, or if that contact is inappropriate in light of the particular concern(s), please contact Magellan's legal department at (918) 574-7000 or the Magellan Action Line at (888) 475-9501.

Our confidential 24-hour Action Line is operated by an independent service, and concerns may be reported anonymously. Anyone can report a concern via the Action Line including Magellan employees, customers or the general public.
